

Tinner Hill

Historical Landmark Dedication

Saturday, Sept. 16, 2006
1 p.m.

106 Tinner Hill Road, Falls Church, VA 22046

Reception and Open House at 1:30 p.m.

Celebrate the dedication of Falls Church City's second state historical marker!

The Commonwealth of Virginia will unveil a state historical marker to commemorate the civil rights pioneers of Falls Church and Tinner Hill, where the first rural branch of the NAACP was founded in 1915.

The event is free and open to the public!

The Tinner Hill Arch was dedicated by the Tinner Hill Heritage Foundation in 1999 to honor the contributions of the African American community. The arch was designed as a tribute to the fine stone masonry of the Tinner family, a prominent family during the post-Civil War settlement of the area.

